

THE INNOVATION ARM OF FRC

Exceedient Gluten-Free Flour: Consistency You Can Count On

At Exceedient Foods, we specialize in premium gluten-free flours made from California-grown rice and nutrient-rich whole grains. Produced with a deep connection to the source through Farmers' Rice Cooperative's grower owner community of 500+ rice farming families, we are 100% vertically integrated from field to mill. We deliver dependable supply, trusted quality, and total control over every step of the process. Our flour portfolio is expertly crafted to meet the exacting needs of food manufacturers, bakeries, and innovators looking to create the next better-for-you product.
