

THE INNOVATION ARM OF FRC

SINGLE SOURCE INGREDIENTS FOR INFINITE POSSIBILITIES

From enhancing flavors to collaborating on new products, we are shaping a future of gluten-free ingredient innovation.

Exceedient Foods is the embodiment of collaboration, innovation and know-how. Standing at the forefront of the rice industry, we are rooted in the strength and resources of FRC. As the largest grower-owned rice marketing co-op in California, FRC has long supplied premium California rice to food manufacturers, brewers and retailers. Exceedient delivers the highest quality ingredients and unmatched source transparency to more customers than ever before.

PIONEERING THE FUTURE OF GOOD FOOD

We blend research and development expertise with curiosity to reimagine familiar ingredients, offering innovative and impactful products that redefine the essence of good food. Our dedicated R&D team continually pushes boundaries, exploring new possibilities with rice and beyond to create nutritious, delicious and unique foods. And by harnessing the strength of our vertically integrated system, we can ensure unparalleled quality and consistency in our relentless pursuit of pioneering new possibilities.
